EU Programme for UWC Short Courses in Cyprus

Social Entrepreneurship

23 June – 9 July, 2021

Online

This UWC Short Course brings together youth from the Mediterranean and equips them with the skills to become a leader and changemaker.

During the course, they will meet and learn from social entrepreneurs and work together on their own social enterprise ideas.

Participants will use experiential and problem-based learning in a digital environment. They will also share their passions and get to know different cultures of the Mediterranean region.

Who can apply?

This short course is open to applicants from the Mediterranean region. Participants should be between the age of 14 and 16 at the time of the short course.

Where does the course take place?

Online. Participants will join daily, interactive workshops, engage in small-group discussions, and meet guest speakers.

Upon completion, participants receive a certificate of completion issued by UWC.

How much does the short course cost?

The course will be free of charge to selected participants through the support of the European Union.
