

Views of Saudi Universities regarding cooperation with Cypriot universities

Name of the University	Proposed Fields of Cooperation	Name and title of Coordinator	Mobile No.	Email
Princess Nourah bint Abdulrahman University	Princess Noura University welcomes cooperation through scholarship- through the portal (Study in Saudi Arabia), or through research cooperation with the University's Research Partnerships Unit	Dr. Nuha Abduaziz Alessa Director of International Partnership Unit	0096655426166	SPD@pnu.edu.sa
King Khalid University	Collaborate with the Faculties of Business, Education, Humanities and Social Sciences, Law, Life and Health Sciences, Science and Engineering and the University of Central Lancashire in the following areas: * Organizing joint research programs Develop students exchange programs *Organize joint workshops and training courses *Establishing joint master's, diploma and bachelor's degree programs in the field of digital marketing and tourism marketing and updating current curricula *Support and promote innovation and entrepreneurship by developing competitions and programs that encourage the development of new ideas and innovations in the field of business and marketing.	Dr. Mohammed bin Salem AlShogaiby General Supervisor of the International Cooperation Department	00966564534843	msalshehri@kku.edu.sa

	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> *Organizing events and seminars that bring together students, academics, and professionals in the field of business and marketing. *Psychology and educational leadership. *Cooperation with Cyprus in the field of educational sciences *Cooperation with Cyprus in open education *Cooperation with the University of Cyprus in the field of continuous education and lifelong education. *Cooperation with the University of Limassol in the field of psychology science.
Taibah University	Collaboration with the University of Cyprus in the following fields: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> *Build and develop quality academic programs in the fields of science and engineering under joint supervision between the two parties. *Activating student and academic staff exchange in a way that contributes to the development of human skills. *Joint supervision of graduation projects and postgraduate theses. *Promote the culture of publishing joint scientific research in a way that enhances the development of knowledge exchange. *Contributing to the development of research capabilities at Taibah University by benefiting from distinguished research centers such as the KIOS Center for Excellence in Research and 	Dr. Ibrahim Khawaji Director of Local & International Cooperation	00966504633411	oic@taibahqu.edu.sa

	Innovation and the Foss Center for Research in the Field of Sustainable Energy, Cyprus University.
Haft Al Batin University	Welcomes the cooperation with the Cypriot Universities	Dr. Faten Manee Alhafaeri Dean of the Deanship of Research and Innovation	00966540005672 fmaidhafaeri@uhb.edu.sa
Jazan University	Proposed fields of cooperation: * Scientific and training exchange with Cypriot universities, including (the fields of health sciences, engineering, natural sciences, computer technology, humanities, and fine arts) * Provide scholarships for outstanding students to study the Arabic language, Islamic sciences, and other related specializations at Jazan University through the student exchange program or through the Study in Saudi Arabia platform, according to available capabilities. * International cooperative training program for male and female students of Jazan University in training at Cypriot universities. * Hosting engineers, experts and scientists from Cypriot universities in related disciplines at Jazan University for specific periods (Visiting Professor Program), to hold seminars and workshops.	Dr. Hussain Musa Alnashiri General Administration of Missions, Attraction and International Cooperation	00966556518035 Hainashiri@jazanu.edu.sa

Qassim University	The University welcomes scientific cooperation with Cypriot universities through the following: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> *Exchange of visits between faculty members and researchers, cooperation in scientific and research fields of common interest, and encouragement of the publication of joint research between the two parties. *Exchanging visits, student scholarships, and academic seats at all levels of higher education in the fields that each party is distinguished, and among the specializations that students can offer to foreign students, the Sharia (Islamic) specializations and the Arabic language specializations for non-native speakers, using modern education techniques (distance) through the Arabic Language Learning Department at the College of Languages and Humanities Faculty. 	Meshari Saleh Alenazi	00966544445609	Meshari@qu.edu.sa
Prince Sattam bin Abdulaziz University	Prince Sattam bin Abdulaziz University believes that there is an opportunity for cooperation with Cypriot universities in areas that serve national priorities, which are: Energy and industry, sustainable environment, human health, and future economics, so that the aspects of cooperation in these areas are at the level of student projects and research activities for faculty members, according to the following framework: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> *Student and Lecturers exchange program *Various research and projects *Organizing joint seminars and conferences 	Dr. Ali Abdullah Adrees Dean of Faculty of Engineering	00966593364065	a.adrees@psau.edu.sa