PRESS RELEASE

PETER AND THE WOLF & THE MAGIC REMOTE-CONTROL Family Concerts

Limassol: Thursday 8 October 2015 Rialto Theatre, 18:00

Nicosia: Friday 9 October 2015 Strovolos Municipal Theatre, 18:00

Larnaka: Saturday 10 October 2015 Municipal Theatre, 17:00

The Cyprus Symphony Orchestra brings again to life, especially for you, the Sergei Prokofiev's (1891-1953) famous musical tale Peter and the wolf conducted by Alkis Baltas, Artistic Director and Chief Conductor of the CySO. The story is narrated by the popular Cypriot actor Petros Georgadjis. Three family concerts will be held, in Limassol, Nicosia and Larnaca on the above dates.

The Russian Sergei Prokofiev is considered to be one of the greatest composers of the 20th century. His visits with his two sons to performances at the Musical Theatre for Children in Moscow, seem to have inspired him and generated the idea for "a musical tale for children. Thus, Prokofiev himself wrote both the music as well as the text of the story: the adventure of Peter, a brave boy. Peter enjoys the beauty of nature in the company of a duck, a cat and a bird, until a wolf appears to upset their peace.

The characters in the story as well as the lovely creatures of the animal kingdom are represented by the musical instruments of the symphony orchestra in their own unique way. The tale will unfold before us through the music and the evocative voice of Petros Georgadjis and will overflow the theatre with musical images! After Prokofiev's work, the Orchestra holds a musical surprise for its young friends, entitled The Magic Remote-Control.

An entertaining musical afternoon for the whole family!
